MATERIAL FACTS

13. In or around March 2005, Plaintiff began her employment with Defendants as a “Sales Assistant.”
14. In or around February 2010, Plaintiff was promoted to a “Customer Service Representative.”
15. Beginning in or around 2010 and continuing until Plaintiff’s termination on February 23, 2012, Defendant HILI consistently spoke about sexual subjects in the work place with other male employees.
16. By way of example, Defendant HILI discussed dating strippers with other male employees and said, in front of Plaintiff and other employees, “Would you date a nice girl that is a 5 or rather a 10 but she’s a stripper?”
17. Defendant HILI and the other male employees consistently referred to women as “bitches” in front of Plaintiff and other employees.
18. Defendant HILI and the other male employees frequently looked at women’s pictures on Facebook and other websites and would comment on what they looked like in front of Plaintiff and other employees. .
19. Plaintiff felt extremely uncomfortable when Defendant HILI would talk about sex in front of her and other employees.
20. Even though Plaintiff and other employees felt uncomfortable about the sexual talk and would turn away, Defendant HILI would say “I don’t care. Do you know how many times I’ve been reported to HR and nothing has been done.”
21. Defendant HILI said this in order to coerce, intimidate and dissuade Plaintiff from exercising her protected rights.

22. Defendant HILI said this in order to make Plaintiff believe that it would be futile to file a complaint.
23. In or around July 2011, Plaintiff noticed Gilbert Jibaja, one of Defendants' employees, place both hands on another female employee, Alyssa Lance's, shoulders when talking to her.
24. Plaintiff asked Alyssa Lance if everything was okay because she (Alyssa Lance) looked uncomfortable. Alyssa Lance responded "Does Gil[bert Jibaja] touch you inappropriately when he talks to you?"
25. Plaintiff told Alyssa to report the incident to Defendant HILI, Manager of Defendants' "Venue Department."
26. Alyssa told Plaintiff "I don't want to yet because I'm new here."
27. After observing the inappropriate touching, that same day, Plaintiff herself reported the inappropriate touching and sexual harassment of Alyssa Lance to Defendant HILI.
28. Defendant HILI said that he would talk to Alyssa and then subsequently told Alyssa that he would talk to Gilbert. However, Alyssa resigned because she felt so uncomfortable with the sexually hostile work environment.
29. After this incident, Plaintiff noticed Gilbert Jibaja place his hands on other employees' shoulders or hands.
30. On or about September 22, 2011, Plaintiff complained to Defendants' Human Resources Hotline because Gilbert had not been reprimanded for the sexual harassment and he continued to make sexually inappropriate comments to other female employees.
31. On or about September 29, 2011, Plaintiff again complained with a follow up call to the Human Resources Hotline.

32. In or around the middle of October 2011, Defendants' Human Resources Department stated they would be meeting with each employee and Defendant HILI to conduct an investigation. Plaintiff specifically stated that she did not want to meet with Defendant HILI because he was "part of the problem."
33. In or around October 2011, Plaintiff had a meeting with Roseanne Ferrick, the Human Resources Manager, in which Plaintiff complained about Gilbert's previous sexual harassment, Gilbert and Defendant HILI's inappropriate behavior, and the fact that whenever anyone complained to Defendant HILI about the unlawful activities, Defendant HILI did nothing to investigate or remedy the situation.
34. Beginning immediately after Plaintiff's complaints to Human Resources, and continuing until Plaintiff was terminated on February 23, 2012, Defendant HILI began retaliating against Plaintiff.
35. In retaliation for Plaintiff's complaints, Defendant HILI stopped speaking to Plaintiff or acknowledging Plaintiff.
36. In retaliation for Plaintiff's complaints, Gilbert Jibaja began to overly criticize Plaintiff's work on a daily basis. Plaintiff informed Defendant HILI of Gilbert Jibaja's behavior however Defendant HILI failed to take appropriate measures to remedy the situation.
37. In or around November 2011, Plaintiff complained to Benjamin Brown, Defendants' "Project Manager Lead," about the hostile work environment and relentless retaliation.
38. Benjamin Brown told Plaintiff "You need to play the game and kiss [Defendant HILI's] ass."
39. On or about February 23, 2012, Defendant HILI terminated Plaintiff under the pretext that she was incorrectly submitting her timesheets and that she was leaving early.

40. Since in or around the beginning of 2010, Defendant HILI told Plaintiff and other employees
“I don’t care to know what time you leave as long as work flow permits and one of you is here to turn the next shift. If I received any complaints then it will stop.” Plaintiff was never addressed on any complaints regarding leaving early.
41. Defendants implemented the timesheet system in or around September 2011 but never provided any formal training.
42. Plaintiff was never told she was submitting any timesheets incorrectly.
43. Plaintiff also said to Defendant HILI “you told me I could leave early if work flow permitted.”
44. Defendants’ other employees were incorrectly submitting their timesheets and leaving early with authorization but were not terminated.
45. On or about February 23, 2012, Defendants terminated Plaintiff for reporting Gilbert’s sexual harassment and inappropriate touching.
46. On or about February 23, 2012, Defendants terminated Plaintiff because she complained about the hostile work environment.
47. Defendants’ reason for terminating Plaintiff was pretext to cover their discriminatory animus towards Plaintiff for having complained about Defendants’ unlawful practices.
48. Defendants would not have harassed Plaintiff but for her gender/sex.
49. As a result of Defendants’ actions, Plaintiff felt extremely humiliated, degraded, victimized, embarrassed, and emotionally distressed.
50. As a result of Defendants’ discriminatory and intolerable treatment of Plaintiff, she has suffered severe emotional distress and physical ailments.

51. As a result of the acts and conduct complained of herein, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer the loss of income, the loss of a salary, bonuses, benefits and other compensation which such employment entails, and Plaintiff has also suffered future pecuniary losses, emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment of life, and other non-pecuniary losses.
